(5) (Amended, SG No. 69/1999, SG No. 69/2003, repealed, previous Paragraph 4 and amended, SG No. 69/2006) In the cases under Items 2, 3 and 4 of paragraph 4 above, the Chairperson of the Municipal Council shall convene a meeting to be held within seven days of the request. After the expiry of this time-limit, failing that, the meeting shall be convened by the requesting party and held within seven days of the date of its convocation.

(6) (New, SG No. 69/1999, supplemented, SG No. 69/2006) The Municipal Council shall continue to perform its duties until the composition of the newly elected Municipal Council. When the court has suspended the implementation of the decision of the Municipal Election Commission on the municipal councillors' election results or has declared the election result null and void the term of the powers of the Municipal Council whose mandate has expired shall be renewed until the newly elected Municipal Council has taken an oath of office.

Article 24

(Amended, SG No. 65/1995)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 69/1999) The Municipal Council shall elect a Chairperson from among its members. The election shall be held by secret ballot. The candidate who has obtained more than half of the votes of all the Councillors shall be deemed elect.

(2) (New, SG No. 69/2003) The Municipal Council may elect one or more Vice Chairpersons of the Council. The terms and procedures for the election of Vice Chairpersons and their powers shall be governed by the Rules under Article 21, paragraph 3.

(3) (New, SG No. 69/2003) Early termination of the powers of the Chairperson of the Municipal Council may take place in any of the following cases:

1. resignation;
2. permanent inability or recurrent non-performance of the obligations of a Chairperson for more than three months at a decision of the Municipal Council made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1;

3. (new, SG No. 42/2009, amended, SG No. 7/2018) entry into force of an act ascertaining conflict of interest under the Counter-Corruption and Unlawfully Acquired Assets Forfeiture Act.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, supplemented, SG No. 69/2003) Where the Chairperson's powers are terminated earlier than the expiry of his term, or in the Chairperson's absence, or where the matter at hand concerns the Chairperson's conduct, the sitting shall be chaired by another Councillor elected for the purpose or the Vice Chairperson, if any.

(5) (New, SG No. 24/2018) A Chairperson of a municipal council who, before being elected as chairperson of the municipal council, has worked in a state or municipal undertaking or enterprise, in a commercial company with over 50 percent state or municipal participation in the capital or in a budgetary organisation, shall have the right, after the termination of the his/her powers as chairperson of the municipal council, to occupy his/her previous position and, in the cases where this position is closed, another equivalent position in the same or, with his/her consent, in another state or municipal undertaking or enterprise, another commercial company with over 50 percent state or municipal participation in the capital, or another budgetary organisation.

(6) (New, SG No. 24/2018) Where the previous position referred to in paragraph 5 is occupied by another person, the legal relationship with such other person shall be terminated without notice.

(7) (New, SG No. 24/2018) The provisions of paragraphs 5 and 6 shall not apply where, before being elected as a chairperson of the council, the Chairperson of the municipal council has occupied another position as an elected official or official with a specified term of office.

Article 25

(Amended, SG No. 65/1995)

The Chairperson of the Council shall:

1. convene the Council to sittings;
2. guide preparations for sittings;
3. chair the sittings;
4. coordinate the work of standing committees;
5. assist the Councillors with their activities;
6. represent the Council before outside persons and organisations.

(2) After the end of their term of office, mayors of mayoralities referred to in paragraph 1 shall perform functions of lieutenant mayors on a temporary basis until their release by the newly elected mayor of the municipality.

§ 3. This act shall enter into force on the date of being promulgated in the State Gazette, with the exception of § 2, which shall enter into force from 28 October 2019.

TRANSITIONAL AND CONCLUDING PROVISIONS to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Health Act
(SG No. 44/2020, effective 14.05.2020)

§ 38. (1) Until the end of 2020, the Minister of Finance may authorise granting loans credited to the state budget and subject to repayment by the end of 2021. Said loans may be granted to municipalities in view of the implementation of anti-epidemic measures under Article 63 of the Health Act on their respective territories or in the event of temporary cash imbalances in a municipality's budget resulting from a decrease in the collectability of real estate tax, vehicle tax and household waste charges as compared for 2019 figures covering the same period.

(2) Loans referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be granted following a reasoned application by the mayor of the relevant municipality and a decision by the relevant Municipal Council; Article 103(5) of the Public Finance Act and Articles 14 and 15 of the Municipal Debt Act shall not apply.

(3) The provisions of Articles 105 and 106 of the Public Finance Act shall not apply to loans referred to in Paragraph (1).

§ 39. The transfer for maintaining roads in winter and clearing snow off these made by 20 January 2020 and referred to in Article 53(4) of the 2020 State Budget of the Republic of Bulgaria Act may be used by municipalities for the purposes of implementing anti-epidemic measures under Article 63 of the Health Act on their respective territories.

§ 40. (1) In 2020, costs referred to in Article 62(3) of the Local Taxes and Fees Act may include costs incurred in the course of implementing measures under Article 63 of the Health Act in public areas in settlements and settlement-like localities on the territory of a municipality.

(2) The costs referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be covered by a redistribution of the municipal budget but shall not require amendments to the method of determining the amount of household waste charges or amendments to the charges themselves, as adopted by the Municipal Council.

§ 41. (1) Until 31 December 2020, up to 30 % of the funds accumulated according to the provisions of Article 60(2)(1) and (2) and Article 64(1) of the Waste Management Act may be expended to cover costs relevant to the implementation of measures referred to in Article 63(4) and (7) of the Health Act and related to meeting the requirements set out in the Waste Management Act.

(2) The funds referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be expended following a decision of the relevant Municipal Council endorsed by the Minister of the Environment and Water.

(3) The 2020 monthly contributions referred to in Article 60(2)(1) and (2) and Article 64(1) of the Waste Management Act for the period between 1 March 2020 and 30 November 2020 shall be made by 31 December 2020.

(4) For the period between 1 March 2020 and 31 December 2020, interests shall not accrue on the amounts due in monthly contributions referred to in Article 60(2)(1) and (2) and Article 64(1) of the Waste Management Act.

§ 42. In 2020, the ban on construction and installation works at national resorts along the Black Sea coast under Article 15 of the Black Sea Coast Development Act shall run between 15 June and 1 October.

§ 43. (1) Until 31 October 2020, working-age unemployed persons receiving monthly benefits under Article 12(1)(1) of the Social Assistance Act and not part of the employment schemes under Article 12b of said Act may conclude employment contracts for short-term seasonal labour in the agricultural sector with a term of not more than 120 days but this period of employment shall not be counted towards said persons' period of service.

(2) The employment contract referred to in Paragraph (1) shall provide for a full 8-hour working day, except where the parties to said contract have agreed to a 4- or 6-hour working day.

(3) The conclusion and termination of the employment contract referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be governed by the provisions of Article 62(3) and (4), Article 127(1)(4) and Article 128a(3) of the Labour Code.

(4) The employment contract referred to in Paragraph (1) shall contain details on the parties, the place of employment, the name of the relevant position, the dates and months in which work is to take place, working day duration, the start and end times of working hours and data entered ex officio by the Labour Inspectorate Directorate registering the relevant contract form.

(5) The employment contract referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be drawn up in line with a form approved by an order of the Minister of Labour and Social Policy and shall be published on the website on the General Labour Inspectorate Executive Agency.

(6) The employer, a farmer registered under the Agricultural Producers Support Act or a registered tobacco producer under the Tobacco, Tobacco Products and Related Products Act, may obtain registered forms of the employment contracts referred to in Paragraph (1).

(7) A registered farmer or tobacco producer may obtain forms of the employment contracts referred to in Paragraph (1) either in person or electronically from the relevant Labour Inspectorate Directorate.

(8) Remuneration shall be paid on the day on which the term of the employment contract referred to in Paragraph (1) expires. An acknowledgement of receipt of remuneration shall be signed to this effect and shall become an integral part of said contract.

(9) The social security and health insurance contributions of persons referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be made by insurers that have concluded a contract according to Paragraph (1) within the periods referred to in Article 7(1) of the Social Insurance Code and Article 40(1) of the Health Insurance Act.

(10) The persons referred to in Paragraph (1) shall remain entitled to monthly benefits under Article 12(1)(1) of the Social Assistance Act for the term of their contract referred to in Paragraph (1).

(11) Until 31 October 2020, the fundamental economic activity "Plant Production: Harvesting" shall be considered an activity within the meaning of § 1(5) of the Additional Provisions section of the Employment Promotion Act.
